And sadly sighs the wandering wind Where oft in years gone by Prayers rose from many hearts to Him, The highest of the high, The trend of many a noiseless foot

That sought thy aisles is o'er, And many a weary heart around Is still forever more. How doth ambition's hope take wing;

How droops the spirit now; We hear the distant city's din. The dead are mute below: The sun which shone upon their paths

Now gilds their lowly graves; The zephyrs which once fanned their brows

The grass above them waves. Oh! could we call the many back Who've gathered here in vain, Who've careless roved where we do now,

Who"ll never meet again; How would our very hearts be stirred To meet the earnest gaze Of the loyely and the beautiful, The light of other days.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Why doth the little country boy Tear madly at his pants? Unthinkingly he sat him hown Upon a crowd of ants.

A poor young man remarks that the only advice he gets from worthy men is to "live within his income," whereas the the difficulty he experiences is to live without an in-

"Molly, I wish you would be a better little girl," said an Austin other to his little daughter. "You have no idea how sorry I am, that mama has to scold you all the time. "Don't worry about it pa," was the reply of the little angel, "I am not one of those sensitive children. Half the time I don't hear what she says.'

Not long ago a young Florida negro named Romeo married a young colored girl named Juliet. They now have twins which they have named Romulas and Remus, and they are all driven to church every Sunday by a horse named Pontius Pilate in a carriage named Noah's Ark.

"Any reduction in the price of clothing?" he asked. "Very large reduction," answered the dealer." " would like to buy a pair of pantaloons if I can get them cheap enough. "Well, sir, prices have all gone to pieces, particularly on pantaloons. The bottom has fairly dropped out." "In that case," said the customer, turning to go, "I guess I will stick to my old ones for a while yet.

More Scandal.

Chicago News: "What, Governor St. John has a scandal, too?" "Well, he was discovered in the arms of a woman." "Is that possible? When?" "Oh, a good many years ago." "Who was the woman?" "His mother."

In Bad Luck.

"I hear you've had a promotion. Glad to hear of your good lack." "Good luck! You don't call it good luck to be taken in partnership, do you?"

"Well, yes. I should think so. It gives a man a better chance to accumulate a fortune." "Not when he was cashier in the SASH, first place." A Collegiate Education.

Young Man (departing for college)-Well, father, good-by. You may expect to hear from me often and I trust that on my return you will find that I have not been unmindful of your self-sacrificing efforts to provide me with an education. Good-by!

Father (with emotion) — Good-by my son, good-by!

Young Man (Three months later. Arriving from college)—Ah, Governor, how de do? Delighted to see you. Bah Jove. Beastly weathaw this, don't you know. How's the folks? Doosed glad to get home.

The old gentleman thinks of bringing suit against the college. N. Y. Sun.

A Dubious Compliment.

"Do you play very much nowadays, Miss Smith?" he asked, as they seated themselves after a waltz. "Only occasionally," she replied. "I have neglected my music shamefully of late and I am getting quite out of practice." "I was passing your house last evening," he went on, "and stood at the gate for a moment to hear you play. Instead of getting out of practic: I think you are improving-if any improvement is possible, he added politely. "Last evening?" she asked. "Yes, about nine o'clock."

"You are mistaken. I was at the Sm all Pictures to any desired size, in opera last evening," she said in a the very highest style of art. though not always, cured. lates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. it prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigor-ously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely baid."

I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vicon is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give outless satisfaction." to give entire satisfaction.'

Mr. Angrs Fairmann, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used Aven's Hair Vigon, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, Says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AVER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short bair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Victor, but now use it occasionally as
